The Polytechnic Institute of Porto Rico
SAN GERMAN, P. R.

proposes to place in reach of the 200,000 youths of the Island, thorough training in the useful arts and sciences, along with an Academic course extending throughout at least High School. The Institute is non-sectarian, but evangelical in principle, imbued with the spirit of Christian charity and liberty.

All students work—

Those who pay no money work 4 ½ hours per day
Those who pay $4 per month work 3 hours per day
Those who pay $8 per month work 2 hours per day
Those who pay $10 per month work 1 ½ hours per day
Those who pay $12 per month work 1 hour per day

Calculated income from $300,000 will maintain teachers and 384 students in the school.

Rev. JOHN WILLIAM HARRIS, President of Institute,
