Mother's favorite hymn was written by Dr. Cleland B. McAfee after the death of his brother Howard's two little girls within twenty-four hours of each other, and was sung early Sunday morning by the college choir in front of their home for the first time. It is

There is a place of quiet rest
Near to the heart of God
A place where sin cannot molest
Near to the heart of God.

O, Jesus, bliss Redeemer,
Sent from the heart of God,
Hold us who wait before Thee,
Near to the Heart of God.

There is a place of comfort sweet
Near to the Heart of God
A place where our Saviour meet
Near to the heart of God.

There is a place of full release
Near to the heart of God
A place where all is joy and peace
Near to the heart of God.

Mother walked with God and her heart always beat with the heart of God, ready to be met for the Master's use.
