"This is My Father's World,
And to my listening ears,
All nature sings, and round me rings
The music of the spheres.
This is my Father's world:
I rest me in the thought
Of rocks and trees, of skies and seas;
His hand the wonders wrought.

"This is my Father's world,
The birds their carols raise,
The morning light, the lily white,
Declare their Maker's praise.
This is my Father's world:
He shines in all that's fair;
In the rustling grass I hear him pass,
He speaks to me everywhere".

After the singing of this hymn the congregation will go to the historic steps where Polytechnic hymns will be sung.

"The Polytechnic Hills"

"Oh, the Polytechnic Hills
how majestic and how grand,
With their summits bathed in glory
Like the fair, the promised land.
Is it any wonder then
That my heart with rapture thrills,
As we stand and gaze with loved ones
On the Polytechnic Hills?"

CHORUS

"'Oh the Polytechnic Hills
Must we bid you e'er adieu?
If in lands beyond the billows,
We shall ever dream of you,
In the evening time of life
If the heavenly Father wills
We shall still behold the vision
Of the Polytechnic Hills'".
