

He conducts a Sunday Forum of Latin & Anglo Americans.

He rides the range, plows, plants, grinds feed, fills silos,

Clarence and Mary will write you about their year. I hope they tell how tall Fred is - He was over six feet when he entered maritime service and he is taller every time he comes home - Maybe it is the uniform!

Jeanie is a sophomore in A + D - Do you remember the Bratchers? He taught Business Adm. in Inst. ~~Who~~ ^{Bratche} was one of Jeanie's teachers - Sylvia is ~~nearly~~ ^{going to be} as tall as her mother - "Uncle Clarence" is just the same - ~~Donna~~ ^{Donna} Mary teaches in ~~the Latin~~ ^{the Latin} Sunday School + works in the Anglo missionary Society, is the life of the Latin PTA + ^{president of the} Sociedad Feminila de Servicio Christiano, besides teaching in the public school.

she walked up to a dehorning + branding chute
where the blood from the horns was spurting like a fountain, took paper + pencil + calmly copied the brand. Aldo instantly + cheerfully. Edda looked ^{up} ^{at} ^{the} up at our windmill with the quiet remark "No wonder it is so cold here with that fan turned on".

For weather we have had 111° in the shade
some days this year, and a few sand storms.

Dr. Harris has parted with all his teeth.
Bendito! He has to gum it!

Dr. Morris has written us some fine letters, so have Dr. and Mrs. Valey, ^{Mrs. Morris} Mrs. Palmer, Lydia, ^{Lucy} Armanda, ^{Lucy} Margarita Capriles, the Lebers, Mrs. Paul Fitzgarry, Mrs. Patricia Ramirez,
Mrs. Manuela Rivera, Mrs. Virginia Gonzalez, Monserrate Pagan, Ramon Lopez, Dr. Beverly,
and Honorable Emilio del Toro, Esperanza Castillo.
^{Lula Vega,}
we thank you.

We have attended two Educational conferences
and one Inter-American conference this year.

Dr. Harris is invited, ^{to speak} not only ^{at} the High Schools but ^{at} various public meetings, especially among mexicans