Matt 22:21. "Render :. unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's; and unto God the things that are God's"
The Pharisees were sure they would force Jesus to side in ^{sitting} with the Romans or with the Jews. Tribute was imposed by the Romans and the Jews did not like it.
If Jesus would say "no" he would make himself liable to Rome; if "yes" he would offend the Jews. Christ sets down the basic law that man owes a duty both to State and Church, Government and God. "Render :. unto Caesar

unto God the things that are God's"
As we look back over history we see the life of nations were measured in proportion as they have realized this law of duty. There was a time reached in the life of each nation when prosperity and triumphs were more than they could endure. They lacked the duty to God. There was the golden age of Greek history.
Egyptians left the Pyramids as a mark of their development and beginning of their fall.
The nations have been traveling
